

1895 Mary Gregory style glass scent perfume bottle, sterling top

Sold

REF: 4336

Height: 7 cm (2.8")

Diameter: 1.5 cm (0.6")

DESCRIPTION

A charming cylinder form clear crystal scent bottle, with a cork lined embossed silver screw top - the latter with vacant cartouche - and silver collar. The bottle is hand enamelled in the Mary Gregory style with a young girl holding a bunch of flowers. Condition: very small dint to the bottom edge of the screw top; light age and use wear; nothing further found; good screw closure. The silver top hallmarked for Birmingham 1895, maker's mark "MBros". Article measured in centimetres and rounded to the nearest quarter inch. Height 7cm/3in.